RISKS

The Company is exposed to the following types of risk resulting from the use of financial instruments: credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk. The Management Board is responsible for establishment of risk management in the Company as well as for supervision of its respecting. Risk management principles in the Company aim at identification and analysis of risks to which the Company is exposed, setting out the proper limits and control as well as monitoring of risk and level of limits adjusted to it.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of incurring a financial loss by the Company when the customer or the other party to the contract for a financial instrument fails to comply with the obligations arising from the contract. Credit risk is mainly associated with receivables. The Company's exposure to credit risk is mainly due to the individual characteristics of each client. The company monitors its receivables on an ongoing basis. The Company creates impairment losses that correspond to the estimated value of losses incurred on trade and other receivables and on investments. The purpose of the Company's credit policy is to maintain financial liquidity ratios at a safe high level, timely payment of liabilities to suppliers and minimization of costs related to servicing bank liabilities. The policy of managing liabilities and receivables from suppliers and customers is also used to minimize the use of bank loans and related financial costs. Its purpose is to agree on the terms of mutual payments.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk of difficulties in meeting the obligations of the Company related to financial liabilities, which are settled through the release of cash or other financial assets. The liquidity management by the Company consists in ensuring, to the highest degree possible, that the Company always has sufficient liquidity to settle the required liabilities. The company has sufficient funds to cover expected operating costs and to service its financial liabilities.

Currency risk

There is a currency risk in connection with the loans granted in PLN. The risk related to the possibility of fluctuations in the exchange rate of one currency in relation to another may lead to both deterioration of the financial situation of the entity and its improvement as a result of a decrease in a given receivable or an increase in this receivable.

Due to the stable euro/zloty exchange rate, financial assets and liabilities recorded in these currencies were not subject to significant risk. The euro/zloty exchange rate is characterized by low volatility.

Risk of shares price's fluctuations and limited liquidity

An inherent feature of market trading is fluctuations in share prices and short-term fluctuations in turnover. It might result in possible sale or purchase of the qualifying holding of the Company's shares will relate to a necessity to accept significantly less favourable price than the reference price. The Company cannot also exclude significant, temporary limitations of liquidity, which may significantly hamper the sale or purchase of the Company's shares.

Risk related to related parties

There are interpretations indicating the possibility of risk arising from the negative impact of links between members of the Company's bodies on their decisions. This applies in particular to the impact of these ties in the scope of ongoing supervision over the Company's operations. When assessing the likelihood of such risk, it should be considered that the supervisory bodies are subject to the control of another body - the General Meeting, and it is in the interest of the members of the Supervisory Board to perform their duties in a reliable and lawful manner.

Risk related to the shareholder structure

As at the balance sheet date (31/12/2025) 29,06% of the share capital and 29,06% of votes at the Company's General Meeting owned directly Patro Invest OU, as a result of which the above-mentioned Shareholder has a significant influence on the adopted resolutions at the General Meeting of the Company.

Risk related to the economic situation in Poland and Estonia

The economic situation in Poland and Estonia has a significant impact on the financial results achieved by all entities operating in these countries, including the Company, because the success of the development of companies investing in financial instruments and conducting financial services activities largely depends on the conditions of running a business. Rising inflation may also have an impact on the business situation because it may have an impact on the level of interest rates.

Risk related to the armed conflict in Ukraine

Due to the ongoing armed conflict in Ukraine, the Company's operations are moderately exposed to the consequences of the war. As at the date of publication of the report, the Company does not anticipate extending the conflict beyond the territory of Ukraine.
